

KENTUCKY METHODISTS.

Proceedings of the Two Conferences, at Frankfort and Louisville.

The present session of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Louisville is the largest ever held. It has generally been the case that many churches sent written reports, but at this meeting almost every charge throughout the entire State sent messengers.

Rev. C. J. Howes was readmitted to the conference, he having located six years ago to serve in the United States Marshal's office. Mr. Howes was warmly welcomed back to the conference.

There were placed on the super-numerary list the Rev. Messrs. A. M. Abbott, H. R. Blaisdell, W. F. Maltbie and J. W. Zimmerman, D.D.

At the anniversary of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society the report showed contributions of $677.14, as against $905.64 in 1893. The decrease was caused by financial stringency and not by reason of any relaxation of interest in the good cause.

The annual report of the Preachers' Relief Fund showed that there were last year twenty-two claimants, who were allotted $3,650, but only $1,802 was raised, giving each claimant $82. "That," said Dr. Clark, who made the report, "is an average of $1.60 a week to the support of a family of five or six." Dr. Clark made an impressive address on the origin, office and work of a minister of the Gospel, and told how the fund for the relief of aged preachers was founded by Bishop Francis Asbury, whose last words were a request for a collection for the aged preachers. R. T. Miller, Treasurer, reported receipts and disbursements for the year $2,995.54. The endowment fund, $17,763.43. Dr. Walsh made a strong appeal for contributions to this cause, and a collection of $425 was taken.

Rev. Dr. Spencer, Secretary of the Church Extension Society, made an appeal for this branch of the work. He said: "In twenty-eight years our board has not lost a church; since January we have had twenty churches sold; the best church in North Dakota sold for a debt of $7,500; sold to the Catholics; 200 churches are in like peril. These are not cheap churches, such as we build 500 of annually, costing about $2,800, but churches costing about $8,500 on an average. There are 3,500 Methodist congregations without churches, 5,000 Sunday schools without shelter.

The appointments were announced Monday. Rev. D. P. Holt's many friends will be glad to know he is returned to Maysville. Rev. G. N. Jolly goes to Augusta, and Rev. W. H. Childers to Sardis. Rev. Cyrus Riffe is returned to Mt. Olivet.

M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

At the session of conference in Frankfort since last report, upon the calling of the names of ministers, exception was taken by Rev. A. P. Jones to the passing of the character of the Rev. Dr. W. T. Poynter. It was charged that the latter minister had disseminated false doctrine by asserting that "whatever was natural was right." After some discussion of the course proper to be pursued the Bishop decided to appoint a committee of investigation. Revs. E. L. Southgate, D. B. Cooper and W. F. Taylor were named.

The following candidates were admitted into full connection: James W. Crates, Horace E. Turner, D. B. Band and James L. West.

The names of the following ministers were called and their characters passed: E. C. Savage, Middlesborough; J. R. Savage, Shelbyville; W. E. Arnold, Stanford; J. D. Redd, Sharpsburg and Bethel; W. A. Penn, Mt. Olivet; M. P. Morgan, Tollesboro; E. G. B. Mann, Newport; G. M. F. Hampton, Millersburg; T. W. Watts, Maysville; J. O. A. Vaught, Harrodsburg.

The following young ministers were continued on trial: Francis M. Hill, Salt River; Minor S. Clarke, Augusta; George W. Boswell, Moorefield; S. X. H. Pollitt, Sylvan Dell; L. Robinson, East Maysville and Helena; J. W. Mathews, Whitesburg and Hindman; Josiah S. Ragan, Canetown; B. E. Lancaster, Jackson and Beatyville; Edward Allen, Hazard and Hyden; J. R. Word, Kinney; C. H. Greer, Lancaster and Junction City; A. E. Colgrove, Polsgrove; E. E. Holmes, Owingsville; J. W. Hunter, Canetown.

At Paris, Sunday, Jephtha Butler, a Breckinridge man, and J. Horace Miller, an Owens man, had a personal encounter just before services convened in the Christian Church. The participants were in front of the church, of which both are deacons, and disagreeing over some trivial matter regarding Saturday's election, they became involved in a fight. Butler pulled a handful of Miller's whiskers out, while the latter beat Butler over the head with his umbrella.

THE Democratic Executive Committee sent Governor Mathews, of Indiana, an invitation a few days ago to come over and open the campaign in this city. In reply he writes that it is impossible to accept the invitation as he is booked for speeches almost daily from now on in his own State. Had it not been for these previous engagements it would have given him great pleasure to come over to his old home and meet and greet the friends of his youth. The people of Maysville regret his inability to come. His services are in great demand in the present campaign as he has been invited to speak in several States. Keep your eye on Indiana's present Governor.

THE MINDS OF THE PEOPLE

Of the country are so crazed with political affairs, but little thought is given matters of greater importance. The REAL question of the hour is—

What Shall I Wear On My Feet?
How Shall I Be Economical in Buying?

ANSWER: Attend F. B. RANSON & CO.'s opening sale of Boots and Shoes. Never in the history of the Maysville Shoe trade has there been such an array of styles; never such values; never such low prices for CASH.
